

Michelle L. Abdolhosseini

Michelle L. Abdolhosseini is an associate with Keesal, Young & Logan in its San Francisco office. Michelle represents individuals and organizations in a variety of complex legal matters, primarily handling matters in employment, securities, commercial and business litigation.

Prior to joining Keesal, Young & Logan, Michelle served as a judicial extern for the San Francisco County Superior Court and the U.S. Department of Labor, Office of Administrative Law. While at U.C. Hastings College of the Law, Michelle served as the Editor-in-Chief of the Hastings Business Law Journal and served as a Teaching Assistant in Legal Research & Writing, after receiving the Cali Academic Excellence award for the highest course performance in Legal Research & Writing. With a J.D. concentration in Civil Litigation & Dispute Resolution, Michelle is uniquely suited to provide powerful solutions to clients in matters arising from complex legal disputes.

Outside the office, Michelle enjoys traveling, board games, and trivia.
